OUR repeated advertisements for calling in our debts not having had the desired effect, we are at length constrained to take a more effectual method, and to that end have lodged them in the hands of ROBERT WILLIAMS, Esq; with directions to sue for without distinction, after the first day of February next. It is therefore hoped that those concerned will avail themselves of this last notice, by which they will save themselves considerable charges.——Produce will be taken in payment by DANIEL LEGARE, jun. & DANIEL LEGARE, & Co.

CARNE and WILSON,

Have imported, in the ship Two Friends, Capt. Ball,

A LARGE and compleat assortment of Drugs, Chymical and Galenical Medicines, Surgeons Instruments, &c. &c. which will be sold reasonable.

THE subscriber's late advertisement having had but little effect, in collecting his just dues, he is therefore obliged (thro' necessity, and the fear of shutting up his house for want of his monies to preserve his credit) to put all his outstanding debts into the hands of CHARLES PINCKNEY, Esq; attorney at law, to be immediately collected and recovered, of which all persons concerned are hereby desired to take notice, and excuse his conduct in this respect, for the preffing reasons abovementioned. ROBERT DILLON.

CARVER'S WHARFF,
At GOSPORT,

BY the many additions and improvements lately made, is the most convenient in England for clearing rice, &c. &c. The largest ships that come from Carolina can lay afloat at all times of tide, and as the wharff is now covered, rice can be shifted in any weather.—The post going to and from London, every day, makes it very convenient, and skins, indico, or such other goods, as are often sent by land, may be immediately conveyed by waggons to London. Any number of porters may be had in order to dispatch business, and many other advantages attend the proprietors of ships and cargoes, too tedious to mention.

To be Lett,

And may be enter'd upon immediately.

THE HOUSE and appurtenances in MARKET-SQUARE, next to Mr. Hopton's, being a good situation for business. Apply to Mr. Newman Swallow,

JAMES ROULAIN.

BENFIELD and JONES,

Have imported in the brig. Philadelphia Packet, Capt. Harrison, from Philadelphia,

SUPERFINE flour in whole and half barrels and kegs; ship, water and milk bread, bar iron, &c. which they will sell cheap.

They have on hand a great variety of goods, usually imported from Europe, among which are broad and narrow cloths, shalloons and all other trimmings, durants, tammies, coarse and fine cambletts, callimancoes, worsted damasks, Scots plaid, scarlet serge de Nisme, alapine, Manchester velvets, crimson, green, and light drab hair shags, Irish linen, three-fourth and seven-eighth check, check, printed and silk handkerchiefs, gloves, ribbons, worsted cotton and thread hose of all sorts, MENS WHITE SILK GLOVES, and many other articles too tedious to mention, which they will sell on very reasonable terms to any person taking the whole, and great allowance will be made to any person taking a quantity to sell again.

They have to dispose of, a young likely negro wench, and the indentures of two Dutch servants.

N. B. They once more, and for the last time, request those indebted to LISTON, BENFIELD, & JONES, or to themselves, to make immediate payment, as they are determined on the first day of March next, to put all accompts, &c. unpaid into the hands of a lawyer, to be sued for without distinction; but those to whom they have lately wrote, and whose accompts, &c. have been long due, must not expect indulgence to that time.

Charles-Town, Jan. 2, 1767. 6 w.

William Gibbes,

RETURNS his hearthy thanks, to his friends and customers for all past favours, and acquaints them, that he still continues the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its branches, on the usual commission; and to enable him the better to comply with the orders of his friends, hath provided himself with three GOOD SCOONERS of 100, 125 and 130 barrels burthen, which will be constantly employ'd for that purpose, and they may depend on being punctually served in turn, as their orders shall come to hand.

He will keep up a constant supply of GOOD WEST-INDIA RUM, SUGAR and SALT, to be sold at the cheapest rate.

He also still continues to keep the wharf adjoining Mr. Legare's, where constant attendance will be given to dispatch such boats as shall use the same.

WE the subscribers have continued our advertisement in the news-papers for three months past, acquainting all persons indebted to us to discharge their accompts by the first of this instant, January; and as it has had no other effect, than our being obliged to discharge what we owed here; this, for the last time, is to desire all those that have neglected to discharge their accompts with us, that on the first day of February next, we shall put all our accompts into the hands of an attorney to be sued for without distinction.
